I've been a client of Laser & Sign Technology in Sydney for seven years or so. Over the years I've invested into two of their high end machines and believe that these machines are the best laser cutters in the world.

LST Group are very reliable, professional and supportive. Whenever I need the help or support LST Group are here to help. I can't fault them for anything. Whatever is in their control, they solve quickly and efficiently.

I also like the way their service technicians and sales people operate. They are here to help and have been very good to me.

I would recommend LST Group to anyone because of their knowledge, reliability and professionalism.
